tives of the National oard of Fire Underwriters are scheduled to visit this city next summer to examine th measures taken here to protect against Charges Against Union-The local molders' union charges the Foundry Employes union with doing what it can to prevent the success of the strike now in progress. The Federation of Labor will investigate. Good Resolutions-The sentor class at the High school decided yesterday afternoon, to adopt the hener system. and every member of the class will sign the piedge to abstain from any underhanded work during the coming A Destitute Family-It was reported to the "News" this afternoon that there is a destitute family residing at 458 south Fourth West street, and that their condition is so extreme as to call for the most prompt relief from some of the charitable organizations of the city.

To Attend Grand Lodge—Rocky fountain lodge Knights of Pythias, has chosen as representatives to the grand lodge which meets at Murray on the 15th inst: John J. Wallace, P. J. Kilcullen, Thomas Hobday and William Kirkham. As alternates: J. W. Morrison, J. E. Funk, C. A. Erickson and L. J. Tauffer.

Vests Helped Some-W. Anderson has returned from San Francisco, where he left his trunk to feed the fire. He was pulling it after him with a rope, but as he could not go fast enough for the soldiers, they made him leave it; so he grabbed a bunch of clothing from the trunk before giving it up, only to find later that he had an armful of vests, and nothing else.

Sealskin Coat Stolen-Mrs. J. R. Tanner, a guest at the Manitou hotel. reported to the police authorities the lady arrived a day or two ago, with her children, from San Francisco, where she lost most of her possessions in the recent earthquake and fire. Among the effects saved was the coat which has now so mysteriously disappeared. It is valued at $500. Detectives are working on the case, with strong hopes of recovering the lost

Big Business in Oakland-J. H. Col-orn, a New York shoe man, is at the Knutsford from San Francisco. He re-ports a general rush for temporary business quarters to Fillmore street and Van Ness avenue. One firm rented a 50 vero front lot for $600 rental per month, and rentals are now soar-ing sky high. The amount of business in Oakland is something terrific. Thousands of people are going over there from the ruined city to transact business, and certain lines of trade are coining money.

Visits Prof. Lyman—Prof. Lyman of the University of Utah was today es-corting a New York friend in the per-son of Dr. Chauneey Pratt Biggs, over the city. Dr. Biggs has been on a visit to southern California. He did not to to San Francisco for the results. go to San Francisco for the reason that he would rather stay in Los Angeles and see the beauties of the country than go north and witness the ruins of the earthquake. Prof. Lyman and Dr. Biggs became acquainted in Ithlea when the former was attending Cornell university. Dr. Biggs was also the physician of the Lyman family at that

Lively Runaway—A team belonging to the Krug Brewing company ran away on West Temple street yesterday afternoon James Lawless was the driver, and he, with his brother who occupied the seat with him, were thrown to the ground. The man holding the lines held on for some time, but finally had to let go owing to injuries received from being dragged At juries received from being dragged. At Second South street the team collided with an express wagon, and in the mixup the latter vehicle was smashed, and the runaway horses became detached from the wagen. Turning east towards East Temple street, the team was stopped in front of the Cullen ho-
